REMSA Elects Hansen and Pier to the Board of Directors

WASHINGTON, DC – On October 5, 2021, Zach Hansen, Assistant Vice President of Sales for Rocla Concrete Tie, Inc. – Vossloh North America; and Mike Pier, Vice President & General Manager of Roadway Work Equipment, Nordco/Wabtec, were each elected to two-year terms as directors of the Railway Engineering-Maintenance Suppliers Association (REMSA), announced Urszula Soucie, REMSA President.

The new directors were elected to their positions in REMSA's annual meeting which took place virtually. Their terms will begin on January 1, 2022.

Hansen is active supporting industry organizations including the North American Maintenance of Way Club (NAMRC) and the National Railroad Construction and Maintenance Association (NRC). He holds a B.A. from Quinnipiac University in Hamden, CT.

Pier has 14 years of experience in the railroad industry with Nordco. His prior experience at Nordco/Wabtec includes various Engineering roles, Director of Aftermarket, and VP of Sales and Engineering. Mike has a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering and Certificate in Project Management from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. He holds active membership in AREMA Committee 27.

"The REMSA board is excited to welcome Zach and Mike as directors. Their experience and knowledge of our industry will provide valuable contributions to REMSA and its initiatives in the years to come," said REMSA Chairman Jay Gowan.
