SEMINAR: International Rail Opportunities in Canada, Mexico, and Argentina

Join us on Sept 17, 10:00 a.m. EST for a seminar providing a brief update on local developments, municipal priorities, and needed transportation solutions around rail in Canada, Mexico, Argentina, and Turkey (subject to change). These markets represent great opportunity for U.S. suppliers looking for new global customers.

Delivered with the support of RSI and REMSA, the U.S. Commercial Service in-country trade advisors offer insights to help you assess potential for your company's products and services. Learn about leading developments and opportunities and build your knowledge of what's happening in the transportation industry in these countries and how you can boost your global business development.

Speakers:
- Gina Bento, Senior Commercial Specialist, U.S. Consulate - Montreal
- Paul Oliva, Commercial Officer, U.S. Embassy – Mexico City
- Marcelo Amden, Senior Commercial Specialist – U.S. Embassy - Argentina
- Kyungsoo Kim, International Trade Specialist – Chicago
- Jan Blaho, Export-Import Bank of the U.S.
- Dennis Foldenauer, Small Business Administration

One-on-One appointments of 20 minutes each are available with the U.S. Commercial Service advisors on a first come first serve basis.

Date: Sunday, Sept 17, 2017
Time: 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon Eastern
Place: Room 142, Indiana Convention Center
